presidential hopeful Elizabeth Warren's campaign said it was ending its relationship with Square, the payment processing company. Square, a competitor to PayPal and a major online payment processor, endorsed Warren in an email sent to supporters Wednesday. "As we race towards the next Democratic debate, one thing is clear: Elizabeth has the best record on this issue, and we are excited to be working with her to make sure we keep the money out of politics," Square's chief executive Jack Dorsey wrote. "We have not received any monies from the campaign nor will we receive any in the near future." Warren's campaign said Square had been auditing her campaign's work for the past four years. "Elizabeth Warren's views on campaign finance have not changed, and this audit is just another example of how she fights for hardworking American families," a spokesperson for the campaign said in an email. In 2012, Square co-founder and CEO Jack Dorsey criticized Warren after she said that "too many people are working too hard for too little." Read More india Updated: Aug 08, 2019 00:32 IST

The district administration in Tirupati has decided to close down the only cremation centre in the town on August 14 as the management of cremation ground (CMH) has cancelled its operating licence, citing that the premises was suffering from pollution and accumulation of sewage, water and garbage. "The cremation centre is situated in the heart of Tirupati and a huge number of people coming to the temple are cremated here everyday. We are not in a position to keep it open for 24x7," said the chief fire officer (CEO) Jagannath Shettar. The district administration has maintained that the death of an 82-year-old individual on Sunday triggered the closure of the cremation ground. "We received a call after the person died and the phone number given was that of the cremation ground. The location was about 200 metres from his residence," said a senior official of the District Administration. The management of the CMH has claimed that it has taken the decision to close the cremation centre due to infrastructural issues as a result of which the area has accumulated sewage, water and garbage, among others
